Dallas Mayor Eric Johnson Unopposed for Re-Election

DALLAS — Mayor Eric Johnson will run unopposed for re-election as Mayor of Dallas. He is the first person ever to run unopposed for Mayor of Dallas since the city switched to electing its mayor to four-year terms in 1991 and is the first person period to run unopposed for mayor of America's ninth largest city since 1967.

The filing period to appear on the ballot for the May 6, 2023 mayoral and city council elections closed at 5 pm on Friday, February 17, 2023.

"It is the greatest honor of my life to serve as the mayor of my hometown. We have achieved significant, measurable results for the residents of Dallas over the past four years, and I look forward to continuing this incredible progress in my second term," said Mayor Johnson.
